EXPERIENCES

My online CV

This is my online CV. While working on this project I have learnt a lot interesting HTML5 and CSS3 features, like: positioning, responsiveness, how to host a website in GitHub.

Docsgenerator

The goal of this project was to fill out documents automatically for anyone who has an account with all his personal data saved. A big plus was that it was a teamwork and we learnt how to work together. Features included but not limited to: data saving/updating. There were multiple documents ready to be filled out.(official documents) The technologies what we used were the following: HTML, CSS, JavaScript, MySQL.

Landingpages

The goal of this projects was to learn the structure of HTML, features of HTML5, and CSS. I did these projects to practise and improve my front end basic knowledge. Source files are present on my GitHub account.
